

Contact:
Bob Tesh
Sirius Solutions
(713) 888-7186
btesh@sirsol.com

Sirius Solutions to Present at Spring Accounting Expo

HOUSTON, TX. – May 26, 2010 – Sirius Solutions will present today at the 21st annual Spring Accounting Expo in Houston, Texas. This event is sponsored by the Houston CPA Society, a chapter of the Texas Society of CPAs. David Swan of Sirius will speak on “Applying LEAN to the Accounting and Finance Process.” LEAN is an approach for process flow improvements directed at eliminating activities that do not add value. Specific areas of discussion include the importance of clearly defined metrics and the true financial impact for organizations.

About the Spring Accounting Expo

The Houston CPA Society is holding the 2010 Spring Accounting Expo on May 26 and 27 at the Reliant Center in Houston, TX. Attendees have the opportunity to earn 18 hours of required CPE credits. The agenda includes a luncheon addresses by Patricia R. Lykos, Harris County District Attorney, and Jeff Moseley, Greater Houston Partnership CEO. The two days will include 40 breakout sessions across five tracks. For more information on the Houston CPA Society, visit www.houstoncpa.org.

About Sirius Solutions

Sirius Solutions, L.L.L.P. is an independent business consulting firm specializing in the areas of Financial Advisory, Business Operations, Compliance & Controls, Legal & Dispute and Technology. Our mission is to integrate conflict-free consulting and deep subject matter expertise for senior management, providing sustainable solutions to complex business challenges. With a base of professionals averaging more than 20 years experience, we serve clients in over forty countries across a wide range of industries, including energy, manufacturing, health care, financial services and transportation. Sirius Solutions is headquartered in Houston, Texas and has offices in London, New York, Dallas and Denver. Sirius Solutions is not a CPA firm. <http://www.sirsol.com>.

###